1.	Rebecca called the meeting to order. No quorum, unable to approve August meeting minutes.
2.	ReCode Knoxville Updates <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The 2nd draft of the ReCode Knoxville zoning ordinance has been released and can be viewed here. • Public meetings are scheduled in various parts of town through mid-October, and can be found on the ReCode website: recodeknoxville.com/2018/07/24/summer-meetings • Please consider attending one of the public meetings and asking questions. The Food Policy Council is planning to draft comments to submit prior to the final draft, and we'll rely on the input/concerns/support of our members to compose those comments. • FPC will draft official comments to be submitted during the next comments period.
4.	2013 Recommendations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rebecca requested that the group look through the FPC's report from 2013 to revisit recommendations and prepare for a "5 years later" report. • Chad explained the process of the Knoxville Foodshed Assessment. • Brian explained the process of the Urban Agriculture ordinance. • Daniel suggested continuing the discussion in lieu of breaking out into committees. • The group offered & discussed possible policy recommendations to vote on at the annual retreat.
7.	Next meeting is the annual retreat: TUESDAY, October 16, from 8:30-11:30am @ CAC Beardsley Community Farm
